

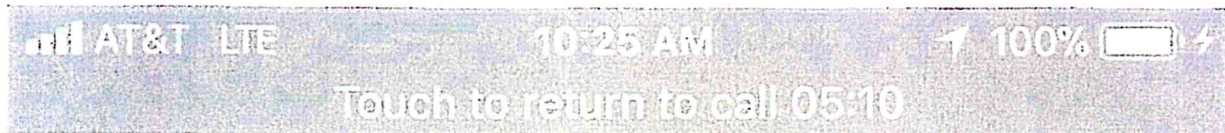

EXHIBIT 16
 facebook.com
Patricia Baca Bennett

Yesterday at 7:57am · 6

Apparently Diane Haddock has not resigned. I don't understand.

Like

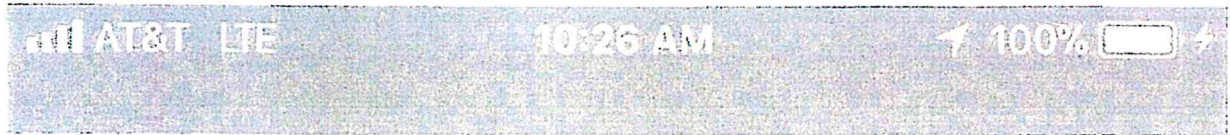

Share

William Busby

I think her husband sent an email and is now trying to walk it back. At this point in the game, I don't know how Judge Haddock is putting up with this. So sorry that her and the district judges are going through this.

on Sun · Like · More

facebook.com

Patricia Baca Bennett

No idea

2 mins Like More

Paul Enlow

I think Judge Harris should just accept that email resignation and end the craziness.

2

on Sun Like More

Patricia Baca Bennett

I honestly believe they are pushing us to fire her.

1

on Sun Like More

Paul Enlow

I suspected the same thing.

on Sun Like More

Faith Bussey

Why would they push for y'all to fire her? (I personally believe she should be fired, but I don't understand the strategy on their part.)

facebook.com

Kris Shafer

What's going on? I'm out of the loop I guess!

21 hrs Like More

Patricia Baca Bennett

Associate Judge Diane Haddock started moving her framed flags and art out of the Courthouse Wednesday fueling rumors that she was going to resign. Then a strange email was allegedly sent by Gerald Haddock to the president of the State Bar of Texas. The email was rumored to have said that due the corruption in the election process is wife is resigning. At first, Mr. Haddock said he did not send the email. Then he said the email was about corruption, and he didn't resign on behalf of his wife. Diane Haddock apparently talked to the former Associate Judge of Judge Wells, who put on her Facebook that she had personally talked to Judge Haddock and she had not resigned. No one bothered to talk to Bill Harris, her supervising. The State Bar President was put in the awkward position of telling him. This is painful and atypical of an otherwise great bench and bar.

21 hrs Like More

Carol Ann Birdwell

per 5 up 9

<https://mail.yahoo.com/>

3/5/2018

facebook.com

Carol Ann Birdwell

Patricia Baca Bennett this is so bizarre.

13 hrs Like More

Patricia Baca Bennett

It is embarrassing

13 hrs Like More

Carol Ann Birdwell

Patricia Baca Bennett call me naive, but if my husband were doing what GH has been doing, there'd be problems at my house.

13 hrs Like More

Patricia Baca Bennett

Oh yeah

13 hrs Like More

Tom Quinones

Any resignation should come from the officeholder/placeholder. This has overtones and background information

page 6 of 9

<https://mail.yahoo.com/>

3/5/2018

facebook.com

13 hrs Like More

Patricia Baca Bennett

Oh yeah

12 hrs Like More

Tom Quinones

Any resignation should come from the officeholder/placeholder. This has overtones and background information we don't know I think any move now must be from Judge Haddock as to the validity or not of her current status.

14 hrs Like More

Tom Quinones

Seems that if this bizarre, unorthodox, a sign of confusion and an acknowledgment of possible defeat, or if its a definite act towards resignation; it still seems to require the same response. Serious or not, no response is the best action. Judge Haddock, not her husband, should be the one to explain. This is strange to say the least, and the timeliness is questionable as well.

12 hrs Like More

Aaron Robb

This whole election cycle has inspired very little confidence in so many ways. Whatever is going on I hope there is a concerted effort to restore people's faith in our judiciary in some meaningful way.

page 8 of 9

in our judiciary in some meaningful way.  1

10 hrs Like More

Paul Powers

Bill Harris posted yesterday that had talked with her, and she is not resigning.

2 hrs Like More